

HAWAIIANS LIKE TO VOTE FOR WHITE-MEN

SENATOR ACHI ON THE PROPOSITION OF NATIVE DISPOSITION TO VOTE ONLY FOR NATIVES—SAYS THE RECORD SHOWS THAT WHITE MEN GET MORE VOTES THAN THE HAWAIIANS DO.

Senator W. C. Achi was discussing politics this morning and gave some views which are new to many of those who have been interested in the local situation, on the proposition of race voting. Achi has run for the Senate successfully twice since the Territory was organized, and is now talking of running for Supervisor-at-Large. He says the Senate takes too much time from his business. It was in discussing the matter of a Delegate to Congress, and the reported feeling that a white man cannot win the office, that Achi delivered himself.

"It seems to me that there is nothing in that talk," said the Senator. "The record does not show it. The record shows that the Hawaiian vote for a white man more than for one of their own race. Take the Island of Oahu. In the contests for the Senate, the white men got the biggest vote. I am a Kanaka. I beat every other Kanaka on the tickets, but I am never again, Achi said he had heard that the able to beat a white man. The record Delegate had written letters here seeking shows that they all ran ahead of me in support. He had also heard that and I am ahead of all the other Hawaiians. Robertson but did not know about it.

"It is the same on Hawaii, Maui and Kauai. The white men running for the Senate in these districts, where the vote is Hawaiian, get the biggest votes. Baldwin and Dickey of Maui did it and Paris did it on Hawaii. This talk that a white man cannot be elected to Congress seems to me all nonsense. I am talking from the record and it sustains what I say. Hawaiians will and do vote for white men more than for Hawaiians.

"The Hawaiian voter listens to reason and votes as he is convinced is best. He is always open to conviction and it is nonsense to say he will not vote for a white man. I am not talking from mere notions like others, but from what the record shows, and it shows in every election that the Hawaiians have no prejudice at all against voting for a white man."

As to whether Kuhl was to run again, Achi said he had heard that the able to beat a white man. The record Delegate had written letters here seeking shows that they all ran ahead of me in support. He had also heard that and I am ahead of all the other Hawaiians. Robertson but did not know about it.

Operation Was Most Successful

H. P. BALDWIN WAS IN THE HANDS OF SURGEONS AT THE QUEEN'S HOSPITAL TODAY.

After a thorough examination by the physicians in charge of the case, a decision was reached that an operation on H. P. Baldwin for the abscess in his ear would be necessary and the operation was accordingly performed this morning between 11 and 12 o'clock.

The operation was performed by Dr. G. S. McDonagh, a graduate of Toronto University, Canada, who is a specialist in ear diseases, assisted by Dr. Waterhouse and Dr. Rogers. The patient was under chloroform for about an hour.

The work done by the medical men is known as the mastoid operation, consisting as it does of the temporary removal of the mastoid portion of the temporal bone for the purpose of getting at the abscess underneath. It is not usually a dangerous operation though it is of course of a very delicate nature.

In the case of Mr. Baldwin, it proved entirely successful this morning, and after coming from the influence of the anæsthetic he was resting more easily than he has for some time. It was plainly demonstrated that the operation was necessary. With ordinary chances Mr. Baldwin may now be considered on the high road to complete recovery from an illness which has been most painful.

The operation was performed in the new room at the Queen's Hospital.

"Lessons Of The Parade"

A. GARTLEY TELLS WHY THE AUTOMOBILE DIVISION WENT AT THE SPEED THAT IT DID.

EDITOR STAR: Your editorial in Saturday's Star, "Lessons of the Parade," places the marshal of the parade in rather a false position. The fact that the automobiles were separated from the vehicles during the course of the parade was entirely in accordance with the plans which I had laid out. The marshal of the parade led the vehicle division and set the pace for that and the following divisions.

It is essential that we get good photographs of the automobiles and panoramic pictures best serve our purposes. It was also necessary to have suitable backgrounds and to cause no delay at the park. Great care was taken that the carriages and horseback riders should not come in contact with the automobiles and that the automobiles should be parked and the engines killed in front of the grand stand before the arrival of the rest of the parade.

There was a limit to the minimum speed which the automobiles were able to maintain, namely, seven miles an hour. I have instructions that they should adopt this speed and proceed ahead of the rest of the parade to the park, get into position for photographing and then take their position in front of the grand stand. This was very satisfactorily accomplished.

Your criticism was well taken, for we all feel that the parade should have moved as a unit. Under the circumstances, however, I wish to make the statement that I was personally responsible for the arrangement which gave rise to your criticism. In my opinion the Marshal rendered extremely valuable and efficient service throughout.

The Promotion Committee invite published or written criticism which will tend to benefit future parades. We are now making up a file for record which will be available and of benefit in organizing future parades of this character.

Very respectfully,
A. GARTLEY.

ATTACK LAW AGAINST SOLICITING LABORERS

ARREST OF A JAPANESE HOTEL KEEPER ON CHARGE OF TRYING TO SECURE RECRUITS TO LEAVE THE ISLANDS, BRINGS ON A CONTEST TO SETTLE THE CONSTITUTIONALITY OF THE NEW LAW.

Another of the laws of the last legislature is to be attacked in the local courts. This time it is the law providing that no person shall solicit labor here for employment in other places without first paying for a license costing $500. A Japanese named Saito appeared before Judge De Bolt this morning under a warrant issued by the Judge last week, charging a violation of the law in question. Saito is alleged in the warrant to have committed the offense at Lahaina, Maui, on February 14. T. Takahashi swore to the warrant.

The law was passed as a means of stopping California and other agents from soliciting laborers to leave the islands. Saito is a Japanese hotel keeper, and is said to have been trying to get laborers to take the steamer Olympia for the coast and accept jobs on railroads. He was represented in court this morning by Judge Gear. Saito was released on a $500 bond and the case was set for hearing next Wednesday.

Gear declared that the law in question was unconstitutional in that it was class legislation and the preliminary fight in the case will be along these lines. It is claimed that the law was a piece of special legislation, passed applying only to the Japanese. Similar laws have been sustained in some of the states, but it will be argued that the one here is in conflict with the constitution. F. E. Thompson appears as special counsel for the prosecution.
